

University of Cambridge

The mission of the University of Cambridge is to contribute to society through the pursuit of education, learning, and research at the highest international levels of excellence. Cambridge has many business partners large and small collaborating in a wide range of ways, from research projects and enterprise initiatives through to recruitment and professional development courses. Together, we transform ideas into ground-breaking applications, products and services. Sponsorship of the Lord Stafford Awards provides an important opportunity to recognise the achievements and impact of these business partnerships and their value to our region.
